

I pay for satellite radio precisely because I cannot get the variety and quality from broadcast radio stations. I still listen to broadcast radio and probably always will. However, instant access to quality weather and traffic information is not provided by broadcaster. Again, I am willing to pay, so please don't be bullied into limiting satellite radio.

Sincerely,
Stan Burton